

Governor vetoes job security for medical marijuana users

Wednesday, 01 October 2008 21:21 -

Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger has vetoed a bill sponsored by medical marijuana advocates that would have protected most employees from being fired for testing positive for pot that they used outside the workplace with their doctor's approval.

More...