

Thus, this country is currently operating under a fascist and oppressive state, which constitutes TYRANNY...the very kind of tyranny we fought against in 1770's when our country and its republic sought to be free from oppressive British rule.

Under this country's current circumstances, we must look at the very real and tragic message of government oppression and criminal subversion of our Constitution that is consuming this nation, and is the core of our problem.

More...