

The fact is that Israel's core identity is based on ethnic and religious discrimination by a colonial, immigrant group; and maintaining this exclusionist identity has required continued violence against those it has dispossessed, and others who have given them refuge.

How has Israel used our military aid in the past? In all of its wars except one, Israel has attacked first.

More...