

Sarkozy urges Israel to share sovereignty over Jerusalem

Monday, 23 June 2008 17:52 - Last Updated Monday, 23 June 2008 18:29

The French president, Nicolas Sarkozy told Israel today to share sovereignty over Jerusalem with the Palestinians and to stop building settlements in the occupied territories.

In an address to the Israeli parliament, or Knesset, Sarkozy also promised France's support in helping to halt Iran's nuclear programme and he praised Israel's democracy, comments for which he won applause.

More. ..